

CASH for COLLEGE

LearnMoreIndiana.org

Coupons for College

John is in his first year of college. He's going to earn a bachelor's degree in four years. He is studying advertising, so he can design cool advertisements. Right now, he has to pay his college tuition bill. Because John has volunteered and helped people, he has lots of scholarships. They're like coupons for college!

JOHN'S TUITION (how much college costs)

$10,000.00

FIVE GOOD CITIZEN SCHOLARSHIPS ($100 EACH) = 5 x $100

—

How much is left in John's tuition bill?

Elizabeth is in her first year of college, too. She is going to be a medical assistant. She will help doctors in surgeries. College will take two years. Then Elizabeth will have an associate degree. Thankfully, Elizabeth has worked very hard in school. She has a scholarship.

ELIZABETH'S TUITION (how much college costs)

$4,000.00

SUPER SMART SCIENCE STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

— $1,344.00

Now how much is left in Elizabeth's tuition bill?

Marcus is almost done with college. He has been in college for seven years, and he is almost an architect! He will draw buildings so that construction people know how to build them. To help pay for college, Marcus is working for a professor. He earns money for college every time he helps teach a class.

MARCUS'S TUITION (how much college costs)

$23,550.00

TEACHING TWELVE CLASSES ($200 EACH) = 12 x $200 =

Now how much is left in Marcus's tuition bill?

College Planning

Career Success

CASH for COLLEGE