

School Announcement Calendar for High Schools

Friday (1/18)

Attention seniors! If you're planning on going to college this fall—or even think you might possibly go—you have to fill out the FAFSA at FAFSA.gov. The FAFSA is the only way to be eligible for financial aid including state and federal grants, loans and work-study funds. Most colleges also require the FAFSA to receive any scholarships you may be eligible for. Don't delay—the FAFSA deadline is April 15th! Enjoy a stress-free weekend and file your FAFSA today!

Monday (1/21)

Have you heard of Indiana's CollegeChoice 529 Direct Savings Plan? It only takes $10 to start, and your college savings account can grow, free of taxes! Tell your parents or guardians to visit CollegeChoiceDirect.com to start saving today!

Tuesday (1/22)

It's never too early—or too late—to start searching for scholarships! Visit LearnMoreIndiana.org/Cost for tips on how to search for scholarships to help make college more affordable for you!

Thursday (1/24)

It's time for some trivia! What's the best way to earn scholarships for college?

- A: Get good grades
- B: Participate in an extracurricular activity
- C: Volunteer
- D: Graduate with a Core 40 with Honors diploma?

Trick question! There are scholarships available for students who do any or all of these, and more! Check out LearnMoreIndiana.org/cost to learn about scholarships and more.

Friday (1/25)

Seniors, don't forget to make any corrections you need to your FAFSA! There is no deadline to making these changes, but please do it promptly. Don't forget about this very important piece of the FAFSA process! You can make corrections at FAFSA.gov.
