

School Announcements for k-8 Grade

Monday (4/22)

Do you know what you want to be when you grow up? Whether you're planning on becoming a scientist, a teacher or something entirely different, this week is for you! Indiana needs workers in almost every job imaginable, so dream big and consider all the possibilities.

Check out LearnMoreIndiana.org/career to learn more about careers in Indiana and what kind of career might be right for you.

Tuesday (4/23)

Not sure the right career for you? That's OK; you have plenty of time to figure it out. Try creating a free account at IndianaCareerExplorer.com and taking a few of the fun quizzes they offer, like the career interests assessment, to learn more about what careers might best fit your interests and skills.

Wednesday (4/24)

Time for a pop quiz! By 2025, how many jobs in Indiana will require education after high school?

- a. 30% b. 10% c. 60% d. 100%

The answer is C! Nearly two-thirds of jobs now and in the future will require education after high school. Plan now to earn a degree or credential so you'll be prepared for your future.

Thursday (4/25)

Today is Career Dreams Day! As a class, spend the next 5 minutes talking about your career dreams and what you need to do to make them happen. Planning now can help make it easier to achieve your dreams when you're older.

Follow Learn More Indiana on Facebook and Twitter to find more tools to help you plan for the future. Follow them on Twitter @LearnMoreIN or on Facebook at Facebook.com/LearnMoreIN.

Friday (4/26)

Employers look for people with soft skills (also called employability skills), like teamwork, communication and a strong work ethic. How can you practice these skills now so you'll be prepared for the future? Strengthening these skills now will make you a great employee later!
