

Financial Means Testing

Does your family meet financial requirements to receive the 21st Century Scholarship in college?

Background on financial means testing

The financial means test is based on annual household income. To qualify for the scholarship, Scholars must be a member of a household with an annual income equal to or below 370% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). This is equal to double the amount to qualify for the Federal Reduced Lunch Program and initially enroll in the 21st Century Scholars program.

Financial means testing takes place prior to the first year of college enrollment.

Special Circumstances

Any student with a household income in excess of 370% of the FPL will still qualify if the student meets one of the following exceptions:

- The student qualifies for the federal Pell Grant;
- The student enrolled in the 21st Century Scholars program in the 7th or 8th grade as a result of the student being placed in a legal guardianship;
- The student enrolled in the 21st Century Scholars program as a result of the student being placed in foster care.

The Commission uses the guidelines of the year that corresponds to the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to set the limit. For example, the 2024-2025 FAFSA uses 2022 income information. Therefore, the 2022 income determines if a Scholar is eligible.

Additionally, the family size reported on the FAFSA is used to determine which FPL bracket applies to the Scholar. The table above lists the maximum income by family size for 2024 graduates.

What do Scholars need to do?

Every Scholar must complete the FAFSA each year to receive financial aid, so Scholars do not need to submit any additional income information. The Commission uses the income reported on the Scholar's FAFSA to determine eligibility.

Will this affect how much money Scholars receive for college?

The 21st Century Scholars program was designed to help Indiana's low-income students pay for college. Scholars who demonstrate financial need each year remain eligible for the scholarship. Scholars who do not demonstrate financial need may receive a one-time award of up to $2,500.

Remember that financial need isn't the only requirement to keep the scholarship. Visit www.Scholars.IN.gov to view academic and other requirements.

3	$85,211
